

Wednesday 25th May 2017

By Jamie Harrison 8H

As you would do for us.

They've suffered a loss they cannot afford,
Both children and adults lost and gone.
We wish we could change our history and past,
But as it's said what done is done.
Yet together we'll fight,
Through the pain.
Hoping we'll see you happy,
Once again.

You can never fulfil,
The loss of love and hope.
Or the gaps that's left,
When you think you can't cope.
We'll stand together,
Through thick and thin.
To rid this world,
Of evil and sin.

We send our love,
to all who's lost.
We will support you,
At whatever cost.
We'd like you to know,
The victims of the attack.
As you would do for us.
We'll always have your back.