a) Information Guide for Employees Facing Allegations
Statement of intent
In our school, our Christian vision shapes all we do. All members of the school community are committed to upholding the St Michael’s Church of England Christian values:

- to show love, care and kindness to all in our community
- to value what we have and to share with others
- to enable everyone to achieve their full potential

St Michael’s Church of England High School takes its responsibility of care for its pupils seriously. We recognise that any possibility that a member of staff may have hurt a pupil must be investigated thoroughly, but in a way that does not prejudice either the pupil or the member of staff. Any investigation of an allegation of abuse against a member of staff must follow the objective and professional standards and routines described here.

1. Legal framework

1.1. This policy has due regard to legislation and statutory guidance, including, but not limited to, the following:
   - The Children Act 1989
   - The Education Act 2002
   - The Data Protection Act 1998
   - The Education (Independent School Standards) Regulations 2014
   - The Children Act 2004

1.2. This policy should be followed in conjunction with the following school policies and procedures:
   - Behaviour Management Policy
   - Disciplinary Policy and Procedure

2. Initial allegation made to the school

2.1. Any allegation of abuse, whereby a member of staff is accused of abusing a pupil, will be reported to the headteacher. Should the initial allegation first be made to any other member of staff, then that member of staff will either request the person raising the allegation to report it to the headteacher or, if that is not possible, to pass details of the allegation to the headteacher immediately.

2.2. Should the allegation be made against the headteacher, this will be brought to the attention of the chair of governors immediately.

2.3. Should the allegation meet any of the following criteria then the headteacher will report the allegation to the designated officer (DO), formally known as the LA designated officer, the same day that the allegation is received. A teacher or member of staff (including a volunteer) in a school, FE college or other education establishment that provides education for children under 18 years of age has:
   - Behaved in a way that has harmed a child, or may have harmed a child.
   - Possibly committed a criminal offence against or related to a child.
   - Behaved towards a child or children in a way that indicates that they pose/may pose a risk to children.

3. Initial consideration

3.1. The headteacher will discuss the matter with the DO and provide any further details of the allegation and the circumstances in which it was made. The headteacher should not investigate the allegation at this stage. The discussion will also consider whether there is evidence or information that establishes that the allegation is false or unfounded.

3.2. If the allegation is not patently false and there is cause to suspect that a child is suffering, or is likely to suffer, significant harm, the DO will immediately refer it to LA Children’s Social Care and ask for a strategy discussion, in accordance with ‘Working together to safeguard children’, to be convened straight away. In those circumstances, the strategy discussion will include the DO and the headteacher.

3.3. If there is not cause to suspect that ‘significant harm’ is an issue, but a criminal offence might have been committed, the DO will immediately inform the police and convene a similar discussion to decide whether a police investigation is needed. That discussion will also involve the school and any other agencies involved with the child.

4. Action following initial consideration

4.1. Where the initial consideration decides that the allegation does not involve a possible criminal offence, it will be for the headteacher to deal with. In such cases, if the nature of the allegation does not require formal disciplinary action, the headteacher will institute appropriate action within three working days. If a disciplinary hearing is required and can be held without further investigation, the hearing will be held within 15 working days.

4.2. Where further investigation is required, the headteacher will discuss who will undertake that with the DO. The DO is named Uzma Bhatti, and can be contacted by telephone on 0121 569 4770/4771 and by email at uzma.bhatti@sandwell.gov.uk.

4.3. The investigating officer aims to provide a report to the headteacher within 10 working days.

4.4. On receipt of the report of the investigation, the headteacher and chair of governors will consult the DO, and decide whether a disciplinary hearing is needed within two working days. If a hearing is needed, it will be held within 15 working days.

4.5. In any case in which LA Children’s Social Care has undertaken enquiries to determine whether the child or children are in need of protection, the headteacher and chair of governors will take account of any relevant information obtained in the course of those enquiries when considering disciplinary action.

4.6. The DO will continue to liaise with the school to monitor progress of the case and provide advice or support when required or requested.

5. Cases where crimes may have been committed

5.1. If there is no cause to suspect that significant harm is an issue, but a criminal offence might have been committed, the DO will immediately inform the police and convene a similar discussion to decide whether a police investigation is needed. That discussion will also involve the school.

5.2. Where the involvement of children’s social work services is not required, as the pupil is not assessed to be at risk of significant harm, but a police investigation continues, the DO will agree with the police, the school and any other agency involved with the child, the nature of the allegation and how this must be addressed.

5.3. This joint evaluation discussion must take place within one working day of the referral and must consider how to progress enquiries, e.g. a criminal process parallel with a disciplinary process or whether disciplinary action needs to be suspended until police enquiries/prosecution are completed.

5.4. These investigations must be reviewed by the police no later than four weeks after the joint evaluation discussion has concluded and, thereafter, at fortnightly or monthly intervals.

5.5. If the police and/or the Crown Prosecution Service (CPS) decide not to charge the individual with an offence, decide to administer a caution, or the person is acquitted by a court, the police will pass all information they have which may be relevant to a disciplinary case to the school without delay. In those circumstances, the headteacher will deal with the case in consultation with the DO.
5.6. If the person is convicted of an offence, the police will also inform the employer straight away so that the appropriate action can be taken.

6. Allegations which are likely to necessitate an immediate referral to child protection

6.1. The following situations will require immediate referral to child protection:
- Where the pupil has suffered, is suffering, or is likely to suffer significant or serious harm
- Where the pupil alleges that a criminal offence has been committed
- Any allegation of a sexual nature

6.2. The headteacher is aware that some other complaints may also be regarded as child protection issues and, therefore, each complaint will be carefully considered in consultation with the DO before taking any action.

6.3. Where allegations of the above are referred to children’s services, subsequent action will be in accordance with the local safeguarding arrangements.

7. Suspension

7.1. The possible risk of harm to children posed by an accused person needs to be effectively evaluated and managed in respect of the child(ren) involved in the allegations. In some cases, that will require the school to consider suspending the person until the case is resolved.

7.2. Suspension is not an automatic response when an allegation is reported. If the school is concerned about the welfare of other children in the community or the teacher’s family, those concerns will be reported to the DO or police, but suspension is highly unlikely to be justified on the basis of such concerns alone.

7.3. Suspension will only be considered in a case where there is cause to suspect a child or other children at the school is or are at risk of significant harm, or the allegation warrants investigation by the police, or is so serious that it might be grounds for dismissal; however, a person will not be suspended automatically, or without careful thought being given to the particular circumstances of the case.

7.4. The school will consider carefully whether the circumstances of the case warrant a person being suspended from contact with children at the school until the allegation is resolved, and may wish to seek advice from the personal adviser.

7.5. The school will also consider whether the result that would be achieved by suspension could be obtained by alternative arrangements. For example, redeployment so that the individual does not have direct contact with the child concerned, or providing an assistant to be present when the individual has contact with children. This allows time for an informed decision regarding the suspension and possibly reducing the initial impact of the allegation. This will, however, depend upon the nature of the allegation.

7.6. The school will consider the potential permanent, professional and reputational damage to teachers that can result from suspension where an allegation is later found to be unsubstantiated, unfounded or maliciously intended.

7.7. Where it has been deemed appropriate to suspend the person, written confirmation will be dispatched within one working day, giving the reasons for the suspension. The person will be informed at that point who their named contact is within the organisation and provided with their contact details.

7.8. LA Children’s Social Care services or the police cannot require the school to suspend a member of staff or a volunteer, although the school will give appropriate weight to their advice.

7.9. The power to suspend is vested in the headteacher or the governing board, who are the employers of staff at the school.

7.10. In certain circumstances, where a strategy discussion or initial evaluation concludes that there should be enquiries by the LA Children’s Social Care services and/or an investigation by the police, the DO will canvass police and the LA Children’s Social Care services for views about whether the accused member of staff needs to be suspended from contact with children to inform the school consideration of suspension.

7.11. A risk assessment is carried out for each individual case to determine whether the member of staff should be suspended. The assessment takes into account the context of the allegation, background information in relation to the member of staff, and any outcome following the strategy meeting. It also takes into account whether a temporary transfer or period of paid leave is appropriate as an alternative to suspension. The assessment is recorded and a copy kept on file.

8. Strategy meeting

8.1. A strategy meeting will be convened within one working day of the referral being made and chaired by the child protection and review unit.

8.2. The DO and all relevant personal including, where appropriate, the headteacher (or nominated representative) and the school HR business partner, will attend this meeting in order to share information and participate in the planning of any enquiries.

8.3. The strategy meeting will be conducted in accordance with local safeguarding arrangements.

8.4. The purpose of the strategy meeting is to:

- consider the risk to the pupil directly involved and other pupils
- share all relevant information about the person who is the subject of the allegation and about the alleged victim
- determine the need for investigation and who is responsible for carrying it out
- plan the investigation/enquiries and set timescales for tasks to be undertaken
- consider whether any other children are affected by the allegations e.g. the person’s own children, grandchildren, or other children in the agency setting such as children placed with foster carers, childminders, or youth clubs
- ensure that the person who is the subject of the allegation is kept informed and supported
- decide how regular information and support will be provided to the child and family and by whom
- plan all interviews and agree who should undertake them so that there is no confusion between a criminal investigation (Section 47 Enquiry) and disciplinary processes
- consider the need to inform relevant parties
- jointly consider how to manage any media interest
- consider whether the circumstances require the person who is subject to the allegation to be suspended from contact with pupils; this may change as the investigation progresses and should be reviewed regularly consider the appropriate course of action if the allegation is against a governor, a temporary member of staff or a supply teacher

9. Attendance
9.1. Attendance will be determined by school procedures but will usually include representatives from children’s services.
9.2. The member of staff who is the subject of the allegation will not be invited to attend the meeting; however, the strategy meeting will agree when and how the member of staff will be informed.
9.3. The minutes of the strategy meeting will be circulated by the chair of the meeting to relevant parties.

10. Communication following the strategy meeting
10.1. The following people will be informed of the outcome of the strategy meeting:
   • The pupil making the allegation and their parents will be informed of the likely course of action and that the matter is confidential and must not be discussed.
   • The member of staff against whom the allegation has been made will be informed of the likely course of action – a record will be kept on the individual’s personal file.
   • The chair of governors will be informed of the likely course of action.
10.2. Subsequent strategy meetings will be held fortnightly, or at a minimum monthly, to review progress.

11. Monitoring progress
11.1. The DO will regularly monitor the progress of cases, either by reviewing strategy meetings, or by liaising with the police and/or children’s social work services colleagues or the school, as appropriate.
11.2. Reviews will be conducted at fortnightly or monthly intervals, depending on the complexity of the case.

12. Referral to DBS
12.1. If, on conclusion of the case, the school ceases to use the person’s services against whom the allegation was made, or the person ceases to provide his or her services, the school will consult the DO about whether a referral to the DBS is required. If a referral is appropriate, the report will be made within one month.
12.2. Referrals to the Teaching Regulation Agency (TRA) are also made where appropriate.

13. Keeping records
13.1. A clear and comprehensive record of any allegation is made even if police/disciplinary action is not taken or proven. This includes details of the allegation, how the allegation was followed up and resolved, and a note of any action taken, including any sanctions imposed.
13.2. The record will be kept on the member of staff’s personal file.
13.3. The purpose of this record is to enable accurate information to be given in response to any future reference request if the individual leaves the school.
13.4. It is also important that accurate and detailed information is held in the event that the DBS makes requests for further information. This information is given to the DBS, if requested, due to the nature of the allegation. A comprehensive record of all allegations will provide clarification in cases where a future DBS disclosure reveals information from the police about an allegation which did not result in a criminal conviction.

13.5. The record will be retained until normal retirement age or for 10 years; whichever is the shortest period of time.

14. Confidentiality

14.1. Confidentiality is maintained whenever an allegation is made; however, there may be a need to share information with relevant agencies, for example at a strategy meeting, on a need-to-know basis.

14.2. Any enquiries from the press will be directed to the chair of governors, unless it is a freedom of information or data protection request, in which case the school, HR business partner or legal representative will be contacted.

15. Action to be taken in respect of false allegations

15.1. If an allegation made by a pupil is proved to be false and/or malicious, action will be taken to determine whether the person who made the allegation is in need of services or may have been abused by someone else.

15.2. In the case of a pupil deliberately inventing or making a malicious allegation, the headteacher will consider taking action in accordance with the Behaviour Management Policy.

15.3. If it is clear to the headteacher and the DO that the allegation is demonstrably false or unfounded, the member of staff will be informed orally and in writing of the allegation, that it is without foundation and that no further action will be taken.

15.4. Where appropriate, and if requested, support will be offered, which could include occupational health and counselling services.

15.5. If an allegation made by a member of staff is proved to be false and/or malicious, an investigation will take place in accordance with the school Disciplinary Policy and Procedure. The police may also consider taking action against the individual making the allegation.

15.6. Documentation will be retained on the employee's personal file to demonstrate that the allegation was malicious.

16. Learning lessons

16.1. Where an allegation has been made against a member of staff, lessons can be learned, whether the allegations are proven or not. At the conclusion of a case, relevant parties will discuss what can be learned and, therefore, lead to improved practice, either to the school procedures or to help prevent similar events in the future. The DO and the headteacher will review the case.

17. Information sharing

17.1. In a strategy meeting or initial evaluation of the case, the agencies concerned will share all relevant information they have about the person who is the subject of an allegation, and about the alleged victim.
17.2. Staff attending the strategy meeting will be prepared with the appropriate information, e.g. full name, address, when their latest DBS check was completed, start date, involvement in youth activities, children of their own, and any other information that could be helpful.

17.3. As per procedures, the police will obtain consent from the individuals concerned to share the statements and evidence they obtain with the school for disciplinary purposes. This will be done as their investigation proceeds rather than after it has concluded. This will enable the police to share relevant information without delay at the conclusion of their investigation or any court case.

17.4. LA Children’s Social Services adopt a similar procedure when making enquiries to determine whether the pupil named in the allegation is in need of protection or services, so that any information obtained in the course of those enquiries, which is relevant to a disciplinary case, can be passed to the school without delay.

18. Resignations and ‘compromise agreements’

18.1. The fact that a person tenders his or her resignation, or ceases to provide their services, will not prevent an allegation being followed up in accordance with these procedures.

18.2. Every effort is made to reach a conclusion in all cases of allegations bearing on the safety or welfare of children, including any in which the person concerned refuses to cooperate with the process.

18.3. Wherever possible, the person will be given a full opportunity to answer the allegation and make representations about it.

18.4. The process of recording the allegation and any supporting evidence, and reaching a judgement about whether it can be regarded as substantiated on the basis of all the information available, will continue even if representations cannot be given or the person does not cooperate. It may be difficult to reach a conclusion in those circumstances, and it may not be possible to apply any disciplinary sanctions if a person’s period of notice expires before the process is complete, but it is important to reach and record a conclusion wherever possible.

18.5. In the same way, ‘compromise’ or ‘settle agreements’, by which a person agrees to resign if the school agrees not to pursue disciplinary action and both parties agree a form of words to be used in any future reference, will not be used in these cases.

18.6. In any event, such an agreement will not prevent a thorough police investigation where that is appropriate, nor can it override the statutory duty to make a referral to the DBS or the TRA NCTL where circumstances require that.

19. Supporting those involved

19.1. Supporting the employee:

- The school has a duty of care to their employees. They will act to manage and minimise the stress inherent in the allegations and disciplinary process. Support for the individual is vital to fulfilling this duty.
- Individuals will be informed of concerns or allegations as soon as possible and given an explanation of the likely course of action, unless there is an objection by the LA Children’s Social Care services or the police.
- The individual will be advised to contact their trade union representative, if they have one, or a colleague for support. They could also be given access to welfare counselling or medical advice.
• The school will appoint a named representative to keep the person who is the subject of the allegation informed of the progress of the case and consider what other support is appropriate for the individual; this may include occupational health.

• Particular care needs to be taken when employees are suspended to ensure that they are kept informed of both the progress of their case and current work-related issues.

• Social contact with colleagues and friends is not be prevented unless there is evidence to suggest that such contact is likely to be prejudicial to the gathering and presentation of evidence.

19.2. Supporting the parents:

• Parents of a child or children involved will be told about the allegation as soon as possible if they do not already know of it; however, where a strategy discussion is required, or the police or LA Children’s Social Care services need to be involved, the headteacher will not do so until those agencies have been consulted and have agreed what information can be disclosed to the parents.

• They will also be kept informed about the progress of the case, and told the outcome where there is not a criminal prosecution, including the outcome of any disciplinary process.

• The deliberations of a disciplinary hearing, and the information taken into account in reaching a decision, cannot normally be disclosed, but the parents or carers of the child will be told the outcome in confidence.

• In deciding what information to disclose, careful consideration will be given to the provisions of the Data Protection Act 1998, the law of confidence and, where relevant, the Human Rights Act 1998.

19.3. Supporting the child:

• In cases where a child may have suffered significant harm, or there may be a criminal prosecution, LA Children’s Social Care services or the police, as appropriate, will consider what support the child or children involved may need.

20. Policy review

20.1. This policy is reviewed annually by the headteacher and chair of governors.

20.2. The scheduled review date for this policy is March 2020.
Appendix a: Information Guide for Employees Facing Allegations

The aim of this information guide is to explain the processes involved, and the support and guidance available, if it is alleged that that you have:

- harmed a pupil or put a child at risk of harm.
- committed a criminal act towards a pupil.
- behaved in a way that raises concern about the risk you may pose to children or young people.

1. Initial action

As soon as possible after the allegation is made, the headteacher should consult the designated officer (DO) to discuss the next action points, taking advice from social care and the police as needed. The police may advise that you are not told about the allegation immediately.

The headteacher’s decision in consultation with the DO will be one, or a combination of the following:

a. the pupil is alleged to have suffered, or is likely to suffer, significant harm - which requires immediate referral to social care.

b. a criminal offence is alleged – this requires referral to social care and police.

c. the allegation represents poor or inappropriate behaviour – this should be considered under the school disciplinary and/or capability procedures, including referral, if appropriate, to the school occupational health advisor.

d. the allegation is clearly and demonstrably without foundation and no further action will be taken.

If the conclusions of the initial discussions are a. or b., a strategy discussion should take place involving police, social care, the headteacher, DO and the school HR business partner. You should not be present. The discussion will focus on the needs of the pupil(s) who may be at risk. It will determine what action should be taken regarding further investigation, but it is not part of any disciplinary procedures.

If the initial discussions conclude the situation is as outlined in c., an investigation will be initiated under the school’s disciplinary and/or capability procedures.

If the conclusion is as outlined in d. you should be told orally and in writing that the allegation is without foundation, and that no further action will be taken.

2. Types of possible investigation

The types of investigation that may be undertaken are:

- child protection inquiries by social care.
- criminal investigation by police.
- disciplinary/capability investigation.

A disciplinary investigation will usually be held in abeyance until external agency investigations are complete, unless prior agreement is reached. Whilst these investigations should be conducted as speedily as possible, they should also be balanced against the need to be thorough and fair, in line with natural justice. Statements taken in external investigations could be used in subsequent disciplinary proceedings.
3. Suspension
Suspension is a neutral act, and should not be automatic. Where possible, the decision to suspend should be informed by the strategy discussion, and should only occur when the known facts relating to the allegation indicate:

- a pupil may be at risk
- the allegations are so serious that dismissal for gross misconduct is possible
- suspension is necessary to allow the conduct of the investigation to proceed unimpeded

Alternatives to suspension will be considered, e.g. leave of absence, transfer of duties, additional supervision.

Where suspension is being considered, an interview with you will normally be arranged. You have the right to be accompanied by a trade union representative or a colleague. You are advised to seek the assistance of your union representative. If you are suspended, one of his/her roles will be to promote your interests and raise issues that may be of concern to you.

The interview is not an examination of the evidence, but an opportunity for you to make representations concerning possible suspension.

Other people, including other staff, should only be told about the allegation on a 'need-to-know basis'. Notification may be delayed if the police think this could prejudice an investigation.

Those who will be told of the allegation and likely course of action include you, the pupil concerned, his/her parent, the person making the allegation, your manager, the headteacher, school HR business partner, the DO and the investigating agencies as above.

If you are suspended, those persons likely to be on a disciplinary panel, if convened, will be given limited information so any future disciplinary process is not prejudiced. If the matter becomes common knowledge, it may be necessary to issue a brief statement, agreed by the agencies concerned, to parents, pupils and the public.

4. Support
You should expect to be:

- advised to contact your union representative
- given a support contact within the organisation who should keep you up-to-date with the progress of your case
- given a team contact, if you are suspended, who will update you about normal organisation activities. Social contact with colleagues should not be precluded unless this would be detrimental to the investigation. The type of information and frequency of contact should be agreed, but colleagues should not comment on or discuss the investigation
- offered staff counselling service and/or occupational health support

This may be a stressful time, so in addition to contacting your union representative, you are advised to see your GP if you think your health may be affected.

5. Monitoring and review of the policy
This policy is reviewed by the school in conjunction with the governing board on an annual basis. We will continue to review the effectiveness of this policy to ensure it is achieving its objectives. Staff are invited to comment on this policy and suggest ways in which it might be improved by contacting HR.
