

Qualification Name	Drama
Exam Board	OCR
Type (e.g. GCSE/BTEC Certificate)	GCSE
Level (1,2 or both)	N/A
GLH (Guided Learning Hours)	A double lesson and a single lessons a week
Course Content Outline (What Will I study?)	Unit 1—Devising from Stimulus 30% In this Unit you will be given a stimulus. You will work in groups to create your own performance in your chosen style. You will then perform this to an audience and will gain a mark for your acting skills. You will keep a performance diary and evaluation which will also be marked, showing that you can justify the decisions you made during the rehearsal process. Unit 2 - Performing from text. 30% You will study a play and pick 2 scenes from this text to perform to an audience. you will be marked on your acting and a short written paragraph which explains the reasons for your chosen acting style. Unit 3—Written Exam 40% You will complete a written exam with 2 sections. Section 1 will ask you questions about a play that you have studied. Section 2 will ask you questions about a piece of Live Theatre that you have seen.
Typical Lesson/Homework Activities. (How will I study?)	You will have to attend 2 Theatre Visits to watch performances. You will need to be dedicated to attending after school rehearsals. All lessons will be practically based, exploring texts and characters through performance and devising from stimulus using a variety of Drama Techniques.
Success Criteria (How will I be assessed?)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Be a confident performance. • Be able to lead others. • To be able to explain in detail the reasons for your artistic decisions. • Dedication to rehearsals. • Have an excellent understanding of the different drama techniques and what these can communicate to an audience.
Succession Paths Post-16 (What can I do with this qualification?)	A Level Film Studies A Level Theatre Studies. Btec Performing arts / Acting. A Level Media Studies experience for any job applied for. Drama shows an excellent level of confidence, performance and team working skills as a minimum